

Church of the Open Door
Adult Sunday School Classes
Fall Quarter 2010
September 8, 2010 – November 28, 2010

Classes will begin at 9:30 a.m.

“New Members Class” – Pastor Efta’s Study

Teacher: Dr. Damian Efta

For those seeking to join the Church of the Open Door or those who just want to find out more about what we believe and why? Pastor will cover an overview of the essential doctrines of the Christian faith as well as some of the distinctive of church membership.

“Reformation” – Sanctuary

Teacher: Elder Rex Michel

We will study the history of the Reformation concentrating on the primary reformers, but also including some lesser known, but important, reformers. We will focus on what each contributed and on the historical backgrounds of the times.

“The Gospel of Mark” – Room # 3

Teacher: Rick Johnson

We will study the Gospel of Mark and noting the audience that the author was addressing, as well as the life of Christ in all His glory. We will be using The Warren Wiersbe Commentary on Mark as a basis for our study with at least four other commentaries. The class time will be divided into two sections: an overview of the class material and a question and answer time. Hope you can make it!

“Encouraging One Another” – Room # 1 (Ladies Class)

Teacher: Denise Garrett

Are you ready to give and receive encouragement? In this study, we’ll search the Bible for all ways God wants us to know He didn’t leave us to face life alone. Twelve weeks of Bible study, down-to-earth illustrations and dozens of thoughtful insights make up this study. This study is from the “Women of Faith Series” by Nicole Johnson.
