

Church of the Open Door
Adult Sunday School Classes
Summer Quarter 2010
Begins June 6, 2010

The Book of Acts - Sanctuary

Teacher: Associate Pastor Jay Lickey

The goal of this Sunday school class will be to examine enough of the book of Acts to grasp its function in the Bible, unique features, and profitability for healthy church growth and faithful Christian living. We will discuss the nature of the book, examine the high points, work through the difficulties, and see the promise of Christ to build His church.

Commitment in Today's World – Room # 1

Teacher: Elder Nathan Garrett

We will review three units dealing with commitment:

- The Nature of Christian Commitment
- The Foundation of Christian Commitment
- The Marks of Christian Commitment

The lesson will draw upon I & II Thessalonians and Philippians. In addition, excerpts will be referenced / reviews from Woodroll Kroll's book; "Taking Back the Good Book." This deals with how America has forgot the bible and consequences of this action.

Single Adults Class – Room # 7

Teacher: Elder Rex Michel

The course is titled "Problems of the Religious Life" and will be based on a set of sermons by G. Campbell Morgan. Morgan was a pastor and theologian with remarkable spiritual insight. The material should create much good and beneficial discussion regarding the struggles, resources and benefits of living for Christ. This course is for single adults between 18-29 years of age.
